

CAPS (Comprehensive Assessment and Preparation System)

User Stories

This document refines system requirements from the user perspective by detailing user stories for various roles. Each user story outlines the needs, goals, expected outcomes, and specific scenarios for each user group.

#	As a <type of user>	I want/need to <perform a task>	So that I can <achieve some goal>	Acceptance Criteria
1	As a Super Admin / College Admin / Associate Dean	Oversee system activities, manage user accounts, Manage institution-level academic oversight through analytics, reports, notifications, subjects, users, and support tools	Maintain the integrity and security of the system while supporting all users	✓ Admin can view system logs and alerts. ✓ Admin can access user management functions such as viewing users, approving users, activating or deactivating users and changing roles. ✓ Admin can access detailed analytics and generate reports. ✓ Admin can enforce institutional policies. ✓ Admin can create system announcements or notifications for selected audiences such as all users, students, faculty, program chairs, deans, or associate deans. ✓ Admin can open support management tools and review support tickets submitted by users.
2	As a Program Chair	Monitor faculty performance, approve or reject requests, access analytics, and manage course offerings	Monitor academic performance and maintain quality within my program	✓ Program Chair can view faculty performance metrics. ✓ Program Chair can review question banks and update question status ✓ Program Chair can access program-scoped analytics and generate reports. ✓ Program Chair can create and update course materials. ✓ Program Chair can ensure compliance with academic policies.

3	As a Faculty/Staff member	Manage my teaching-related content, classes, quizzes, and student performance views	Efficiently fulfill my teaching responsibilities and ensure students have the resources they need	✓ Faculty can view and edit class schedules. ✓ Faculty can upload study materials with version control. ✓ Faculty can grade exams and provide detailed feedback. ✓ Faculty can send notifications to students, with scheduling options. ✓ Faculty can view students enrolled under them through the available 'my students' functionality.
4	As a Student	Access course materials, take practice exams and quizzes, view my results, receive notifications, and review my learning analytics	Track my progress and improve my academic performance	✓ Students can access course materials. ✓ Students can participate in exams and quizzes with real-time feedback. ✓ Students can join a class using a class code and can also leave or unenroll from a class. ✓ Students can receive notifications about assignments and deadlines. ✓ Students can submit support tickets through the help and support workflow. ✓ Students can access student analytics such as summary data, trends, insights, weak topics, recommendations, progress, rank, and frequently mistaken questions. ✓ Students can submit practice exams and review exam history and result details.